

Wedding Party

- Bride's Bouquet - the most photographed floral in your wedding
- Bridesmaids' Bouquets
- Tossing Bouquet (For the Bouquet Toss at the reception) — this can be a scaled-down version of your bridal flowers
- Flower Girl's Bouquet (or Basket of Petals), Flower Crown
- Groom's Boutonniere
- Groomsmen's Boutonnieres
- Ring Bearer's Boutonniere

Reception Flowers

- Cocktail Table and Bar Arrangements
Keep these small and simple.
- Escort Card Table Arrangements
- Centerpieces—the main attraction when it comes to reception flowers. Clustered vases are a simple way to create a full centerpiece.
- Newlyweds' Chair Decorations
- Wedding Cake and Cake Table Flowers

Ceremony Flowers

- Entryway or Welcome Table Arrangements
- Altar Arrangements — this is the backdrop to the majority of your ceremony photos—where you will be standing when you are saying your "I do's." Not only is this the location where your wedding photographer will be taking tons of photos, it's the place where all your guests will be watching you recite your vows and share your first kiss as newlyweds
- Pew or Chair Decor
- Aisle Decorations—adding a romantic touch along the aisle, and a great way to incorporate your wedding color into your ceremony

- Buffet Table/Food Station Arrangements—keep these on the smaller side
- Floral Photobooth Backdrop—making the photos taken of you and all your guests ones to remember forever!
- Powder Room Decorations
- Getaway Car — flowers make the prettiest addition to getaway décor
